JESUS SAVES MISSION CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

Slow to Speak

To minimize social interactions during the Covid-19 pandemic, we are having to spend more time at home – whether it is for work or for home-based learning. If we are not careful, it is easy to get on each others'

nerves. To prevent outbursts of anger, we must learn to be swift to hear and slow to speak, slow to wrath.

James 1:19b.

Listen to what is causing the unhappiness rather than jumping to conclusions, and then, resolve it in the spirit of love.

Going the Second Mile

Knitted soul

by Mrs Ng Mei 4in

Jonathan was the eldest son of King Saul.
1Samuel 18:1-4 tells how, the moment he met David, he loved him "as his own soul." He even gave him his own garments and weapons. When King Saul grew jealous of David's popularity with the people and sought to kill him, Jonathan risked his own life and tried to talk to his father about David. When he failed, he warned David to flee for his life. As the rightful heir to the throne, he could have been jealous of David, made things hard for him and sought to kill him. Instead, he stepped aside, and protected and encouraged David. He did all he could for David.

Do we know how to be like Jonathan and love others in our lives? We are sinners so it can be difficult for us to love others. But now, thanks to God, because of His love, we can now live transformed lives. By His grace we can love others and reach out to help them.

Phrases

Don't be so confident you will win the contest - afterall, pride comes before a fall you know.

Pride comes before a fall

Pride can be either positive or negative. If you do well in your examinations, you and your parents should be proud of what you have accomplished. The bad kind of pride results from an inflated ego (thinking too highly of oneself) and boastfulness. Satan fell because he thought he was equal to God.

His pride led him to attempt to overthrow God and steal His glory. In the same way, Adolf Hitler fell because he trusted in his own 'wisdom' and effort. The Bible records many instances where great rulers and kings fell because of their pride. One example is King Nebuchadnezzar. He was initially blessed with power and riches, and was highly respected in Babylon. However, he took God's gift of success and wealth for granted. He allowed pride to rule his life and failed to acknowledge God as the provider of these blessings. As a result, he became like a wild beast feeding on grass.

Let us stay humble and accountable in our walk with the Lord.

Proverbs 16:18 'Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.'

Part 3

The operation drain the fluid from the brain, insert a shunt to drain the fluid and remove the tumour was carried out. After the surgery was completed, the surgeon told Mrs Liao that the tumour was not completely removed because it was very near the brain stem and if he were to accidentally cut the stem it might irreparable cause damage to his eyesight. She was sorely disappointed that it was not completely removed and was fearful that the tumour would grow again. She was heavy-hearted, but God encouraged her through Isaiah 41:15-16,

"thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff."

This verse gave her the insight that sometimes, solutions come in stages, and that even if her "mountain" had been reduced to a "hill" metaphorically, God could nonetheless help to reduce it to chaff and completely remove it.

MY NEW COOL FRIENDS!

Published 15 Jan 2010

The first week in my new Secondary School was great! I got to know a bunch of new friends in my class through Orientation Week. They are all really cool and popular! We added one another as friends on Facebook and followed one another on Twitter. My friends also taught me these cool acronyms like OMG (Oh my God!), LOL (Laugh out Loud), CYA (See You!), POS (Parents over Shoulder) and said !

should use them in posts or texts to sound cool! They're so nice, I'm glad I met these nice friends in school. To Secretary Community

KAYPOH PARENTS

Published 30 Jun 2010

Got called out by my parents today for using 'OMG' in my texts. My mum saw my WhatsApp chat group messages because my phone screen wasn't locked while I went to the toilet. Ugh! So much for privacy. I mean, they didn't scold me.

My parents just told me that I shouldn't use

OMG because it uses

OMG because it uses
God's name in vain.
But I'm just annoyed that I have to be restricted like that. Shouldn't I have more freedom? I'm already a teenager after all!

SELF-REFLECTION

Published 31 Dec 2013

Scrolled through my old Facebook posts yesterday and saw the number of 'OMG's and even vulgarities I used in my posts last time. It was cringe-worthy. Made me wonder why I used to use such words in my speech and words! I was even rebellious towards my parents' concerns over such language I used. I believe my parents had prayed for me to repent from my worldly ways. I came to realise how I had wasted much time on these bad habits. We should take heed to God's word in Colossians 4:6

"Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man."

I'm glad I have grown out of that phase of using words with the intention of making me sound cool, and now I know I should use my words to glorify God instead!

BIOLOGY

Dragonflies

are one of the most commonly sighted insects in Singapore. They can be easily identified by their large compound eyes, outstretched winas. and elongated colourful bodies. Dragonflies play a crucial role in the ecosystem. These agile predators have manoeuvrability and can catch prey, such as mosquitoes and midges while flying. Certain dragonfly species even mate while flying.

Today, aeronautical engineers use supercomputers and wind tunnels to study the perfect aerodynamic design and flying mechanisms of birds and dragonflies. However, the scientists have yet to engineer and construct a machine as sophisticated and complex as the animal designs created by God.
